

IV. STATEMENT OF CURRENT STUDY

For degree-seeking students

Please attach a description (in 500 words) of the degree you are seeking, and at which school and in which program you are currently enrolled. State any connections your work may have to Italian or Italian American Studies. Attach an official transcript or student copy of your transcript with this application.

Also, please provide two letters of recommendation: one from your dissertation director, a second from another professor with whom you have taken at least one graduate seminar. Each letter should not exceed 500 words.

For post-doctorate and professorial applicants

Please state your research interests and their connection to Italian and/or Italian American Studies (in 500 words). Some issues you might address are: (1) If any, what courses have you taught that are related to any aspect of the Italian diaspora? (2) How will your participation in the seminar enhance your teaching profile? (3) What is and/or will be the relationship between your scholarly work and the Italian diaspora?

In addition, please provide two letters of recommendation: one may be from your dissertation director, the second should be from a colleague professor with whom you have worked alongside. Each letter should not exceed 500 words.

United States citizens must have valid U.S. Passports. Your passport should not expire within six months of your return trip from Italy. If so, you will not be allowed to board the plane at your U.S. point of departure.
